

Srujanavani Prathibha Puraskars - 2013

With objective of inspiring the young minds and to instil the confidence in rural school students, Srujanavani Voluntary Association organised a district level mega event called “Prathibha Puraskar – 2013”. We have felicitated 90 students from all the 43 mandals of Visakhapatnam district.

Awardees include their School heads and Parents. Kalabharathi become venue for this maiden event on June 22nd, Saturday only to witness the joy, confidence and excitement among the Government school students amidst the presence of Shri V.Seshadri, IAS (Dist Collector), Shri Prof. GSN Raju (Vice chancellor, AU), Shri Y Narasimha rao (Addl. Joint collector, ITDA), Smt. K Krishnaveni (DEO), Shri. Dr. Madhusudan Babu (Superintendent-KGH), Shri P Dwarkanath (CEO-SALPG) and Shri R Chandrasekhar (President-Srujanavani).

Shri. V.Seshadri IAS, Dist.Collector-Visakhapatnam, addressing students.

In his address he outlined that Hard work is key to success. Never get down by failures. Edison tasted 999 failures before the first success. Persistence is key to success. Having purpose in the life is important rather than making earning the single goal of life. Children listened to his advice with rapt attention.

Shri R.Chandrasekhar, President Srujanavani, briefing gathering about the vision, mission of Srujanavani. In his address he briefed about activities of srujanavani and future plans. Know more about Srujanavani at www.srujanavani.org

Students got a college bag, motivational bags, other stationery, medal and certificate besides

“This is the first felicitation in my career though I achieved (students academic excellence) many times.”
----- A Headmaster who is going to retire in six months

Teacher plays an important role in molding the students’ lives. Teaching is a commendable profession which can’t be compensated by any means. Felicitations are a small step towards our duty. About 70 number of teachers were felicitated.

- Identified two poor students who are in edge of dropping out from education. Assistance is in progress.
- Scholarship assistance is being provided for low income family students under Vidyanidhi program

THE HINDU

Class X topper R. Sai Kumar receiving an award from district Collector V. Seshadri and Vice-Chancellor of Andhra University G.S.N. Raju at a programme organised in Viskhapatnam on Saturday. —Photo: C.V. SUBRAHMIANYAM Moments of happiness and a sense of achievement filled the hearts of students who have come all the way from 43 mandals to receive the ‘Srujanavani Pratibha Puraskaralu’ here in the city.

Identifying the talent in Class X students hailing from various rural areas across the district, the Srujanavani Voluntary Association has instituted awards for top rankers, their parents, and headmasters of various government schools across the district.

Addressing the students, district Collector V. Seshadri said: “Education is not just about gathering information, it is about acquiring wisdom. Nation is built within the four walls of a classroom. Do not be daunted by the number of failures you go through. There is no shortcut to success. So, develop perseverance and work hard. Realise the value of time and respect it while you fill your life with hours. Inculcate the habit of reading as it opens the door to wisdom. Good habits and self discipline make a person succeed in any field he or she chooses.”

Vice-Chancellor of Andhra University G.S.N. Raju stressed the three aspects to succeed in life — maintaining good health, concentrating on education, and managing time efficiently.

DEO K. Krishnaveni, Additional Joint Collector Y. Narasimha Rao, Superintendent of King George Hospital M. Madhusudhana Rao, CEO of SALPG P. Dwarakanath, and the team of Srujanavani participated.

‘Srujanavani Pratibha Puraskaralu’ presented to toppers of Class X, who passed out of government schools in rural areas

With overwhelming response from all the quarters and your patronage, Srujanavani shall continue to encourage students and felicitate all those who are working tirelessly for tomorrow citizens by continuing the tradition of awarding Government school toppers.

V. Lavanya (a student) said she felt nice to meet many toppers at one place and it allowed her to share views.
---- THE HINDU reports

Contact us at:
info@srujanavani.org
www.srujanavani.org
www.facebook.com/srujanavani

Our sincere acknowledgements to all our Friends, Donors, Moral Supporters and Sponsors who made the event happen besides the aspired benchmark.